We Remember

יהוה, מָה אָדָם וּתְדַעְהוּ, בֶּן אָנוּשׁ וּתְחַשְׁבֵהוּ. אָדָם לְהִבָּל דָּמָה, יָמָיו כְּצֵל עוֹבֵר.
בְּפִקּוּר יָצִיץ וְחֵלֶף, לְעָרֵב יְמוּלֵל וְיָבֵשׁ. לְמָנוֹת יִמְיָנו כֵּן הוֹדַע וְנִבְיָא לְבָב חֲכָמָה.

There is a time for everything, for all things under the sun:

*a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to laugh and a time to cry,*

*a time to dance and a time to mourn,
a time to seek and a time to lose*

a time to forget and a time to remember.

This day in sacred convocation we remember those who gave us life.

We remember those who enriched our lives with love and beauty, kindness and compassion, thoughtfulness and understanding.

We renew our bonds to those who have gone the way of all the earth.

As we reflect upon those whose memory moves us this day, we seek consolation, and the strength and the insight born of faith.

Tender as parents with their children,
Adonai is merciful with us.

Adonai knows how we are fashioned, remembers that we are dust.

Our days are as grass; we flourish as a flower in the field.

*The wind passes over it and it is gone,
and no one can recognize where it grew.*

But Adonai's compassion for us, and Adonai's righteousness to children's children, remain, age after age, unchanging.

*Three score and ten our years may number,
four score years if granted the vigor.*

Laden with trouble and travail, life quickly passes, it flies away.

*What are mortals, eternal God,
that You should be mindful of them?*

Yizkor

We Remember

What are mortals, that You should take note of them, that You have made them little less than angels?

*The sounds of infants attest to Your power,
The magnificence of life reflects Your glory.*

The heavens display Your splendor.
What majesty is Yours throughout the world!

*Teach us to use all of our days, Adonai,
that we may attain a heart of wisdom.*

Grant us of Your love in the morning,
that we may joyously sing all our days.

שְׁוִיִּתִי יְהוָה לְנִגְדֵי תְמִידָה, כִּי מִיְמִינִי בַל אָמוּט. לְכֹן שָׁמַח לְבִי נִיגַל כְּבוֹדֶי, אֶף בְּשָׂרֵי יִשְׁפֹן לְבָטָח.

When I stray from You, Adonai, my life is as death; but when I cleave to You, even in death I have life.

You embrace the souls of the living and the dead.

The earth inherits that which perishes.

The dust returns to dust; but the soul, which is God's, is immortal.

Adonai has compassion for all creatures.
Adonai has planted eternity within our soul, granting us a share in unending life.

Adonai redeems our life from the grave.

May we all be charitable in deed and in thought, in memory of those we love who walk the earth no longer.

May we live unselfishly, in truth and love and peace, so that we will be remembered as a blessing, as we this day lovingly remember those whose lives endure as a blessing.

Our generations are bound to each other as children now remember their parents. Love is strong as death as spouses now remember their mates, as parents now remember their children. Memory conquers death's dominion as we now remember our brothers and sisters, grandparents, and other relatives and friends.

We Remember

The death of those we now remember left gaping holes in our lives. But we are grateful for the gift of their lives. And we are strengthened by the blessings which they left us, by precious memories which comfort and sustain us as we recall them this day.

Each congregant reads silently the appropriate passages among those which follow. Personal meditations may also be added.

In memory of a father:

יִזְכֹּר אֱלֹהִים נְשָׁמַת אָבִי מוֹרִי (שם האב בן שם אביו) שֶׁהִלְךָ לְעוֹלָמוֹ, בְּעֵבֹר שְׁאֲתָן בְּלִי נֶדֶר צְדָקָה בְּעֵדוֹ. בְּשֹׁכֵר זֶה תְּהֵא נִפְשׁוֹ צְרוּרָה בְּצָרוֹר הַחַיִּים עִם נְשָׁמַת אַבְרָהָם יִצְחָק וְיַעֲקֹב, שְׂרָה רַבֵּקָה רַחֵל וְלֵאָה, וְעַם שְׂאָר צְדִיקִים וְצְדִיקָנוֹת שְׂבָגוּ עִדּוֹ. וְנֹאמֵר אָמֵן.

May God remember the soul of my father who has gone to his eternal home. In loving testimony to his life I pledge charity to help perpetuate ideals important to him. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, is his soul bound up in the bond of life. May I prove myself worthy of the gift of life and the many other gifts with which he has blessed me. May these moments of meditation link me more strongly with his memory and with our entire family. May he rest eternally in dignity and peace. Amen.

In memory of a father:

The memory of your life, dear father, rises before me this solemn hour as I recall all the kindness, love, and encouragement which you have shown me during your life. With untiring zeal you provided for my physical and spiritual needs. You rejoiced in my achievements, you guided me in my perplexities, and strengthened me in my trials and disappointments. I can pay you the tribute which you so richly deserve, by cherishing the ideals and principles you have taught me, by continuing the noble work you have left unfinished, by loyally upholding the heritage of Israel which you have transmitted to me, and by serving my people and all who need me. Though you are gone from my physical view, the bond of love which unites us can never be severed. May the memories of your life spur me on to follow truth and righteousness. Amen.

In memory of a mother:

We Remember

In memory of a mother:

Though we are separated, dear mother, in this solemn hour, I call to mind the love and solicitude with which you tended and watched over my childhood, ever mindful of my welfare, and ever anxious for my happiness. Many were the sacrifices you made to ennoble my heart and instruct my mind. What I achieved is because of your influence, and what I am, I have become through you. Though you are no longer physically present, the lessons you imparted to me shall ever remain with me. If at times, I have failed in showing you the love and appreciation which you so worthily deserved, if I have been thoughtless and ungrateful, I ask to be forgiven. I pray that your spirit inspire me to noble and intelligent living, so that when my days on earth are ended, and I arrive at the Throne of Mercy, I shall be deemed worthy of you, and to be reunited with you in God. Amen.

In memory of a child:

I remember in this solemn hour, beloved child, the many joys you afforded me during your lifetime. I recall the days when I delighted in your physical and mental growth, and planned for your future. Though death has taken you from me, you are not forgotten. Your spirit is enshrined in my heart. Adonai, I thank You for the precious gift which You did entrust to my keeping, and which in Your infinite wisdom You have called back to Yourself. Though few were the years wherein I rejoiced with my child, many were the blessings that this child brought into my household. Teach me to live more nobly and to extend my love and devotion to other children in thankfulness for the privilege of having had and loved this child, though but for a few, brief years. Thus may my child's soul be bound up in the bond of life and my child's memory remain an inspiration to me. Amen.

In memory of a stillborn or new child:

הַרֹפֵא לְשִׁבּוּרֵי לֵב

Healer of the broken hearted:

We mourn today, we grieve with You.

For the one who could have been,

You grieve, too.

We mourn that living being

Who never knew the joy of simple breathing.

אֵל רַחוּם וְחַנוּן

God, Source of Life, Merciful and Gracious:

We have loved and we have lost.

Ours is the grief of dreams turned to dust.

Should the threat of despair persist,

Give us the inspiration to regenerate hope.
