

Debbie Mishek (President)

Debbie grew up in Los Angeles at Temple Beth Am and has lived in San Diego since 1984. She is a developmental/ behavioral pediatrician. She is happily married to Steve, a retired airline pilot, and has two adult children living nearby. Debbie has been actively involved in the Jewish community most of her life. She sang in a Jewish choir for over 15 years, chants Torah and Haftarah and founded Kol Tefillah which leads a musical Kabbalat Shabbat service once a month. She has collaborated with Rabbi Dorsch and other congregants on developing some alternative services. She was the co-chair of the Rabbinic Search Committee. Debbie has been the Religious Life VP and the Congregational Services VP. Debbie enjoys cooking, singing and walking. Debbie is honored to have the opportunity to serve the TIS community and to continue to work with everyone to bring music and spirituality into services, build community and develop goals to enhance our community and the world around us.

Evan Ziegler (Administrative Vice President)

Evan has been a member of Tifereth Israel Synagogue since moving to San Diego in 1979. Evan was an active member of USY and graduated from the San Diego Hebrew High School. Evan has served on the Tifereth Israel board of directors since 2014. He has been a member of the Religious Life Committee and is currently on the Security Committee and serves as the Secretary on the Board of Directors. Evan and his wife Diane have two children, Sam and Maya. Both children attended Silverman Preschool, Abraham Ratner Torah School and Community Jewish High School. Both children are currently at college and attend Hillel services and programs. Diane is a member of Sisterhood. Evan and his family enjoy traveling the world and exploring new destinations and cultures. They are also avid fans of the San Diego Padres and SDSU Aztecs basketball team.

Phil Lorang (Finance and Development Vice President)

Phil and his wife, Ellen, have been Tifereth Israel members since moving to San Diego in 2016 from Raleigh, North Carolina. Phil grew up in San Diego. While a member of Conservative and Reconstructionist congregations in Ann Arbor, Michigan, and Chapel Hill, North Carolina, Phil served terms as house committee chair, treasurer, and ritual committee chair. Phil is currently a Co-President for the Men's Club. Phil and Ellen look forward to again regularly attending Shabbat morning services and the daily morning minyan. Phil chants Haftarah regularly. Phil and Ellen's two daughters, two sons, and two daughters-in-law live too far away from San Diego.

Perry Arenson (Religious Life Vice President)

Perry has been a member of Tifereth Israel for over 31 years. He began attending morning minyan and fondly remembers being welcomed by the group of "Minyanaires" from day one. He eventually became involved with different Tifereth activities and attended his first "Carnival" gala fundraiser and has been hooked ever since. He has served on the Board of Directors in many capacities of the years – Director, Board Secretary, Ritual Vice President (three times), Executive Vice President, chaired Carnival gala two times and co-chaired our Gala two years ago. Perry is a regular at Shabbat morning services and attends daily minyan. He has led Shacharit High Holy Day services for the past 22 years. Perry is President of Arenson Office Furniture. He has two sons, Josh and Michael, who both attended Silverman Preschool and Abraham Ratner Torah School and celebrated their Bar Mitzvahs at Tifereth Israel.

Susan Levy (Congregational Services Vice President)

Susan has been a member of Tifereth Israel since 1976 when her daughter, Amy, was born. Susan has served on the Board of Directors in the past 10 years and is the piano player and leader of the Shir Chadash band. Susan is also the co-writer and director of the annual Purimshpiel. Susan is currently the Principal of Pershing Middle School in San Carlos. She is extremely proud of her daughter and son-law, Amy and Shawn Stanley, and adores her grandchildren Charlie and Sophia. Daughter Amy and sons Michael and Barry Levy attended Silverman Preschool and Abraham Ratner Torah School. Susan is looking forward to serving on the Executive Board and continuing the great traditions of Tifereth Israel Synagogue.

Eva Friedberg Isaak (Education and Youth Vice President)

Eva has been a member of Tifereth Israel Synagogue since 2011 when her two daughters Hazel (11) and Sherrie (9) joined Silverman Preschool. She has been a member of the TIS Board since 2015 and has served as an officer on the Executive Board in the roles of Congregational Services VP and Youth and Education VP. When she is not sitting in meetings for TIS, she is sitting in meetings or on the phone for Evari GIS Consulting where she is owner and Director of Finance and HR. Eva was raised in Los Angeles where she was very active in USY at Adat Ari El, enjoyed summers as a counselor and camper at Camp Ramah, and attended Los Angeles Hebrew High School. She enjoys running, watching her newly adopted Greyhound run, and spending time with her family.

Larry Casper (Secretary)

Larry served as the Administrative Vice President for the past several years where he has overseen significant building maintenance and improvement projects; and worked closely with the Executive Director on many projects. Larry has also served previously on the Religious Life and Security Committees and as a member of the Board of Directors. For the last 17 years, Larry has served as criminal prosecutor in the Office of the U.S. Attorney and currently serves as the office's criminal opioid coordinator. His wife, Stacy, is a UCSD professor. Larry and Stacy have two children. Liana is a senior at NYU Tish and a playwright. Seth is headed to the Netherlands to study computer science in college next year. In his spare time, you can either find Larry at TIS, skiing or on the golf course.

David Ogul (Immediate Past President)

A native of Los Angeles whose first job was selling programs at Dodger Stadium, David is a regular at the daily minyan and Saturday Shabbat services and has been active at Tifereth Israel Synagogue since becoming a member in 2004. He has been a professional writer since 1980, and his newspaper experience includes 11 years as an award-winning assistant metro editor at The San Diego Union-Tribune. David now operates Ogul Communications, a successful public relations and marketing firm focusing on higher education and with a clientele consisting primarily of colleges and universities throughout Southern California.

David loves the Dodgers and Lakers (tolerates the Padres; despises the Giants), enjoys a nice glass of red wine, and is the guitarist in the Shir Chadash band. A graduate of San Diego State University, David has three children, 22, 29, and 31, and lives with the love of his life and woman of his dreams, Sharon, in San Diego.

DIRECTORS

Brian Chandler (Director)

Brian is a proud Navy veteran who retired with the rank of Commander and reported directly to a two-star Admiral. After serving from 1969 to 1990, Brian became a successful businessman and entrepreneur, including growing a one-person, one-product medical device firm with annual sales of less than $50,000 into a worldwide manufacturer and distributor of Ophthalmic surgical devices, disposables, office medications, and hand-held instruments with sales in excess of $25 million annually. He is currently President/CEO of Adler MicroMed, Inc., a sales and marketing consulting company. Brian has been an active member of Tifereth Israel Synagogue since moving to San Diego several years ago and is co-chair of the TIS Security Committee.

Cristal Ghitman (Director)

Cristal Ghitman has been a member of Tifereth Israel for the past 17 years. Her children, Malachai Aden and Jacob Ezekiel, both attended Silverman Preschool and Jacob is currently enrolled in Abraham Ratner Torah School. Cristal is a San Diego native, a UCSD graduate, and now works as a National Account Executive with Envysion, a managed video and auditing company. When not working or studying, the family enjoys camping, traveling, football, gardening, cooking and hiking.

Daniella Knelman (Director)

Daniella is a Southern California native who grew up in LA and Orange County but has called San Diego home for over 20 years. She earned degrees in Political Science and Communication from UC San Diego and holds an MA in Higher Education Leadership from the University of San Diego (USD). Daniella met her husband, Evan (who was Bar Mitzvahed at Tifereth!), as a freshman at UCSD. Together they run Minimal Chaos, a web design and communication business that specializes in helping small businesses and non-profits establish a successful online presence. Before Minimal Chaos, Daniella spent ten years working in Student Affairs at USD. Daniella and Evan have two adorable, high energy boys: Riley, a graduate of Silverman Preschool and a student at the Language Academy, and Kaleb, currently attends Silverman Preschool. When she's not working or managing the chaos created by her boys, you can find Daniella out on a run through one of San Diego's scenic neighborhoods or enjoying coffee and conversation with friends.

Norman Kort (Director)

Norman was raised in South Africa in an Orthodox Jewish home. He graduated as an Electrical Engineer and in 1981 emigrated to San Diego. He worked for Cubic Transportation Systems on transit fare collection systems around the world until he happily retired in 2015. He is very proud of his two children, a daughter Jessica, MBA, married to David, and a son Andrew, BA Environmental Science. He married Dr. Annette Feigenbaum in 2007 and in 2011 they moved to Del Cerro where they were warmly welcomed by all at Tifereth Israel Synagogue. Norman has been a regular participant in services and shul events, has served on the Religious Life Committee since 2015, participated in Men's Club events, stacked chairs, and even helped Annette plate the Shabbat cookies. From July 2016 to date he served as a Board member and on Tifereth Israel's Finance Committee and the Rabbinic Search Committee. He served as Secretary on the Executive board and as Finance Committee Vice President and looks forward to contributing even more to the growth and success of this wonderful community and congregation.

Larry Krantz (Director)

Larry has been a member of Tifereth Israel synagogue since 1988. He is married to wife Kathy and they have 3 children and 4 grandsons. Larry is the owner of Am Israel Mortuary.

Bram Rubinstein (Director)

Bram has been a member of TIS for over 25 years and a regular member of the morning minyan. Happily retired now, Bram worked as a community pharmacist both filling prescriptions and administering vaccinations. He is a native Brooklyn New Yorker and has been a BROOKLYN DODGER fan since his family rallied around the Dodgers and later wept when they departed Ebbets Field. Bram and his wife, Rochelle, joined TIS when their former synagogue, Beth Tefilah, lost its rabbi. Having two children, Bram and Rochelle participated in many of the Torah School activities. As a member of the Men's Club, he has assisted in making brats and steak for meals in the Sukkot, made and served latkes for Chanukah and assisted our former Kiddish Committee in preparation of the oneg Shabbats. Their son and daughter became a bar and bat mitzvah with Rabbi Rosenthal, of blessed memory, officiating, and they now live out of the area. "We now consider ourselves empty nesters looking for a cause."

Scott Schechter (Director)

Scott is a Financial Advisor with Eagle Strategies LLC and has been helping families and businesses with their finances since 2002. He is also a Trusted Charitable Advisor with the Jewish Community Foundation San Diego. Scott has served on committees and boards for several non-profits and has helped those organizations with strategic planning, developing policies and procedures, and investment policy. Scott and his wife, Isabel, have been members of Tifereth Israel since 2018 and enjoy being part of the community. When not working and volunteering, Scott enjoys sailing and hiking.

Ira Sherbak (Director)

Ira Sherbak has been a member of TIS along with her husband Alexander (Sasha) and her three daughters since 1997. Youngest daughter Ella is in Kitah Hay, while Estie and Arielle are both away in college. Ira is a former Torah school teacher, and served as Director of the Abraham Ratner Torah School from 2007 to 2010. Ira left the former Soviet Union with her family as a teen, and lived in Israel until she moved to San Diego in 1997.

Miriam Shoval (Director)

Miriam has been a member of Tifereth for many years. She started coming as a small child with her parents and siblings. After graduating from UCSB and moving back to San Diego, Miriam rejoined Tifereth in 2009. She once again started attending services as an adult with her husband, Daniel, and eventually, their two little boys. Prior to graduating law school from USD, Miriam also taught fifth grade in the Abraham Ratner Torah School for three years and Israeli Dance to all grade levels. She currently works as a Deputy District Attorney and sings in the Shir Chadash band. Miriam looks forward to working with the Board and getting to know even more of the amazing people here at Tifereth.

Jenny Winkler (Director)

Jenny Winkler did her undergraduate work at Northwestern University, has a Masters in Public Health from the University of Washington and a Ph.D in Public Health from the University of Arizona. She currently serves as the Interim Director for Restorative Justice at the National Conflict Resolution Center. She and her husband Eyal Oren joined TIS with their sons Jacob and Ari about three years ago. Jacob is in Kitah Hay, and Ari is in Kitah Gimmel. In addition to working as a professional in the non-profit world, Jennie has served on other non-profit boards in the past.
